

ARMENIANS BUILDING...

Project SAVE Archives' 2009 calendar, our 22nd, features "building" of all kinds. And not just bricks and mortar! Structural and abstract, real and make-believe, historical and contemporary – all are evidence of the many challenges & aspirations of Armenians through the decades from the late 19th century to present day.

Look for our exciting new calendar format which allows us to share more photographs. Our photo captions tell thought-provoking stories of people and their "buildings." Every month the calendar reads like a book and looks like a poster – every day a gift reminding us of the past and the present.
